

Application for Lactation Program Scholarship

Each year the Wisconsin Association of Lactation Consultants will provide up to five scholarships to eligible members who will be taking a basic lactation education program to work toward qualifying to take the IBLCE exam. The amount each year will be decided by the Board, depending on the treasurer's report. The Board will have discretion to decide which applicants will receive the scholarship, and whether the program is of sufficient quality to qualify for a scholarship. Letters of recommendation may be requested by the Board.

Qualifications and Conditions:

- 1) Member of WALC for at least one year.
- 2) Within the last two years have attended two WALC business meetings and/or WALC conferences.
- 3) May not receive full compensation from another source to pay for the lactation program.
- 4) Submit applications to current WALC president. Include the web address or a copy of the brochure for the program you plan to attend.
- 5) Turn in documentation that you have completed the course to the WALC treasurer when you are done.
