

WALC AGENDA
Friday January 20, 2012
Beaver Dam Community Hospital
Beaver Dam, WI

- I. 9:30-10:00 Registration and Social
- II. 10:00-12:00 Complementary and Alternative Therapies in Breastfeeding
Presented by Jill Mallory, MD, IBCLC
  - Define “complementary and alternative/integrative” as a general class of approaches
  - How might you create a healing environment?
  - Describe two therapies that involve touch and how they might be used?
  - What might acupuncture be beneficial for?
  - When might you suggest chiropractic manipulation
  - List 2 benefits of craniosacral therapy for the nursing dyad.
  - What is the purpose of remedial co-bathing?
  - Why is homeopathy considered safe in breastfeeding dyads?
- III. 12:00 Lunch ($7/person) exact change appreciated ☺
- IV. 12:30 Business Meeting
  - a. Call to order
  - b. Approval of minutes for November 15th 2011 meeting
  - c. Membership
  - d. Programs
  - e. USLCA update
  - f. Treasurers report
  - g. WALC conference update
  - h. Old business
    - i.
  - i. New business
    - i. WALC survey
    - ii.
  - j. Meeting Adjourned

WALC conference March 8th & 9th

Next WALC meeting: Tuesday May 15th 2012 “Clinical Day” in Franklin, WI
Tour & operation of Dr Jen Thomas’ lactation clinic with topics to include phone triage and Domperidone

Thank you to Beaver Dam Community Hospital for hosting today’s meeting